YALE-NEW HAVEN
HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

AN EVENING OF FOOD, WINE & MUSIC

Yale-New Haven Hospital Auxiliary

For more than 55 years, the Yale-New Haven Hospital Auxiliary has been an important arm of the hospital, dedicated to supporting its missions, contributing funds and raising awareness of health issues in the greater New Haven community. Members are men and women from all walks of life who participate in Auxiliary activities, attend lectures or simply lend their support through annual membership dues.

The idea of making contributions of time, ideas and effort has been at the core of the Auxiliary since its inception. In that time, the Auxiliary has donated over $3.5 million towards hospital programs, services and health education in the community. Some major contributions have included a mobile mammography van, a hand-held mammatome, a stem cell pheresis blood warmer and most recently, a donation of $250,000 to the Yale-New Haven Smilow Cancer Hospital.
